Supplementary Fig. 2. Three sets of calculated contrast filling ratios of method B. The circles and squares at each pressure point represent the observational values of the initial balloononing and the second balloononing, respectively.